

Asia Policy Forum (APF) engages the policy perspective, which is critical to the work that AVPN and its members are doing to build the social economy

ABOUT APF

A collaborative effort that offers a convening platform, a community of potential partners, and practical learning opportunities to support governments, policymakers and policy influencers to build an enabling environment for the social economy.

AVPN SOCIAL ECONOMY POLICY FRAMEWORK

Our work is based on the premise that policy can create impact in the social economy in 5 major ways

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

1

Join the AVPN Community as a Member

Identify cross-sector partners to collectively mobilise impact capital

2

Build Capacity with AVPN Resources

In-house digital policy resources, webinars, and physical workshops

3

List and Respond on APFx

Actionable cross-sector collaboration opportunities on policy programmes that create greater impact

In-house Curated Digital Resources

As Asia's first practitioner-oriented case study series on the Pay For Success (PFS) model, this series offers insight into the experiences of the early movers' of this innovative impact funding tool, all of which engage AVPN members in creating impact.

The report seeks to:

- Highlight PFS instruments across 4 Asia-Pacific markets
- Provide learnings for effective multi-sector engagement

APF Exchange (APFx) Digital Platform for Member-Policy Collaboration

A one-stop digital platform for AVPN members to identify collaboration opportunities with the policy community and other cross-sector stakeholders on actionable policy initiatives and programmes on the ground.

Key features include:

- Search criteria to match AVPN member interests with SDGs, causes, and markets
- Informative background on partners involved, problems to be addressed, solutions and desired outcomes
- Clearly defined action opportunities for AVPN members and partners
- Online to offline outreach and engagement opportunities with policy agencies
